PICK YOUR PICK-ME-UP

COFFEE...COLA... OR VIVARIN

If you're like most people, you enjoy a cup of good, hot coffee or an ice cold cola. They taste great, and give you the lift you want.

But if, as the day wears on, you sometimes have coffee or cola just for the lift, you should try Vivarin.

Vivarin is the gentle pick-me-up. The active ingredient that makes Vivarin so effective is the caffeine of two cups of coffee (or about six glasses of cola) squeezed into one easy to take tablet.

Next time you want a lift, pick Vivarin. It's convenient, inexpensive and it really works.

THE TOYOTA COROLLA SR-5 Sport Coupe. More space, aerodynamic styling plus futuristic features put the redesigned 1980 Corolla into a whole new orbit.

Notice the instrument panel. Its symmetry, beauty and precision are examples of the Corolla's advanced styling. And space is an integral part of that style.

Wide open spaces offer more comfort for leggy drivers and a backseat for leggy passengers. There's even more space to check your baggage!

To help you take off, there's a larger 1.8 liter engine, aided by the sleek, aerodynamic shape which reduces air drag resistance up to 9%.

Each of the 12 Corolla models is definitely out of this world. Yet they're still Toyotas, with all four wheels placed firmly on the ground—when it comes to reliability, a lot of standard features, and total economy.

The Toyota Corollas. Space has never been so beautiful. Or so accessible.

SPACE:1980

After a long hot summer of lukewarm reruns, you're no doubt ready for a brand-new season. The big question, as this issue goes to press, is whether the new season will be ready for you.

An actors' strike that began on July 21 halted production on all but a few prime-time entertainment series and remained unsettled as the summer waned. The strike could mean that viewers will still be watching reruns well into September, if not longer. It is also the reason we were unable to follow our usual practice of including debut dates in the descriptions of this year's new series. The networks simply didn't know when those series would begin.

Even a normal TV season—if that isn't a contradiction in terms—has enough schedule upsets to drive a deacon to drink. Instead of announcing their schedules and confidently sticking to them, the networks have turned to switching shows frantically, as they react to each other's programming strategy in the struggle for ratings points. If all that cutthroat maneuvering goes on even without a strike, you can imagine how unstable this season's schedule is likely to be.

That being said, the fact remains that the 1980-81 season looks like a meaty one. The three commercial networks will be offering such miniseries as East of Eden (ABC), Shogun (NBC), The Acts of Peter and Paul (CBS), The Gangster Chronicles (NBC) and Masada (ABC). They'll be counting more heavily than ever on the dozens of movies, dramas, classics, adventure tales and other specials that will feature such stars as Anthony Hopkins, Peter O'Toole, Joanne Woodward, Alec Guinness, Sophia Loren, Burt Reynolds, John Travolta, Mel Brooks and Jane Fonda in her first TV-movie.

There will be new documentaries on the MX missile, the space program, the auto industry; plenty of sports for all tastes; and, of course, continuing coverage of the election race.

Public television will serve up its own special treats, including Cosmos, Carl Sagan's ambitious exploration of the mysteries of the universe; a 10-part look at Vikings; the third season of Shakespeare, beginning with "Hamlet"; and even reruns of the late lamented CBS series, The Paper Chase.

So, despite the actors' strike, despite the networks' distressing habit of turning the schedule into a crazy quilt, the season ahead promises to be an exciting and entertaining one. When it finally arrives, enjoy it! END

CHANGES

Conspicuous among the many changes in old shows returning for 1980-81 you will find Archie Bunker playing the dating game, Fred Sanford returning to his junkyard, Laverne and Shirley going to Hollywood and the Fonz carrying on without Richie.

Archie Bunker's Place comes back with Archie (Carroll O'Connor) mourning Edith's death, slowly easing himself out of his saloon and beginning to go out on dates. Joining the show is a housekeeper, to spar with Archie at home.

Feuding also is the basic theme of Sanford. Fred (Redd Foxx) cools his romance with his Beverly Hills girl friend and devotes more time to the junk business, embroiling himself in disputes with his partner, Cal Pettie (Dennis Burkley); Aunt Esther (LaWanda Page); and Aunt Esther's son, Cliff Anderson (Clinton Derricks-Carroll). Laverne & Shirley, meanwhile, head for warmer climes. The girls leave Milwaukee and follow Laverne's dad and stepmother to Hollywood.

Other series are changing their venues too. As a reward for cracking a big case, Sheriff Lobo is transferred to Atlanta to become the head of a special anticrime unit. Buck Rogers leaves New Chicago to hunt for other humans in outer space. In addition to last year's sidekicks, Buck is joined by the venerable Dr. Goodfellow (Wilfrid Hyde-White); Crichton, a brilliant but supercilious robot; and Hawk (Thom Christopher), a humanoid who evolved from the bird world. And BJ and the Bear decide that independent trucking is too lonely, so they open their own company, staffed by seven women truckers.

While many shows get a fresh look with a format change, others try to spruce themselves up by adding or subtracting characters. On One Day at a Time, Ann Romano (Bonnie Franklin) falls in love with a widower with a teen-age son. Tanya Roberts becomes the newest of Charlie's Angels, replacing Shelley Hack. Knots Landing, the Southern California beach town, gets even steamier when Abby Cunningham (Donna Mills) arrives and begins seducing the menfolk. On The White Shadow, Coach Reeves (Ken Howard), has some new players to worry about, while his friend Sybil Buchanon (Joan Pringle) has been promoted to principal of Carver High. Trapper John, M.D. adds a nurse (Madge Sinclair), replacing the late Mary McCarty.

On Mork & Mindy, an Orkan "elder," a child of about 11 (Vidal Peterson), arrives from outer space, bringing Mork a pet "naugachomp," a mysterious creature that becomes devoted to its new master. And, finally, Happy Days starts its new season without its central figure, Richie Cunningham—Ron Howard has defected to NBC. To plug the gap, the roles of some of the younger actors —such as Joanie (Erin Moran) and Chachi (Scott Baio)—will be expanded. And the previously unseen Jenny Piccolo, Joanie's overly passionate friend, will surface to create mischief in the Cunningham household. END

DAYTIME

While prime-time actors were on strike, daytime shows rolled merrily along. That's because daytime TV is populated largely by soap-opera actors (who weren't affected by the strike) and cartoon characters, who are too busy striking one another to worry about walkouts.

As usual, most of the fall's new daytime shows are aimed at children. One exception is Texas, NBC's new soap opera (already started) that attempts to satisfy America's unaccountable craving for tales of millionaire oilmen. The networks are mulling other adult projects for introduction later in the season.

All three networks have new cartoon shows, though in many cases they're old shows in new formats. ABC offers Fonz and the Happy Days Gang aboard a time machine; Richie Rich, a transplant from comic books who's the wealthiest kid in the world; Dingbat, a timorous vampire dog; Heathcliff, the mischievous orange alley cat of comic-strip fame; and Thundarr, which features strange beings and superheroes in futuristic settings.

CBS revives familiar characters in The Tom and Jerry Comedy Show and The Tarzan/Lone Ranger Adventure Hour, and introduces Drak Pack, in which the teen-age descendants of Dracula, Frankenstein and the Werewolf atone for the sins of their ancestors by battling the forces of evil.

NBC presents Dynomutt, Dog Wonder, who will join forces with Godzilla, the good dragon, in The Godzilla/Dynomutt Hour. The Space Stars has two new segments: "Astro and the Space Dogs" and "Teen Force" (three teen heroes in outer space).

The kids' scene isn't all cartoons, of course. A new hour-long series, CBS Children's Mystery Theater, offers brain-twisting problems in reasoning, couched in mystery form.

Production of ABC's Kids Are People Too has moved back to New York and been pared to an hour. The idea, according to one executive, is to "make it the Good Morning America" of children's television.

A new instructional show, NBC's Play Along, offers short segments on magic, word games, minimysteries, science experiments, arts and crafts, interspersed throughout The Flintstone Comedy Show and The Space Stars.

Like Twinkies, kiddy shows must be fortified to conform to the networks' minimum daily requirement of instructional material. The 75-second Ask NBC News segments are being augmented to cover 160 questions from kids, and six new 30-second drop-ins will be added to Lenny Schultz's informational skits on How to Watch TV.

Likewise, ABC is introducing a series of brief consumer-information messages called The Dough Nuts, to teach kids how to use their "dough." And CBS News will explain the electoral process to young viewers in "What's an Election All About?" (a new addition to its What's It All About? series).

Finally, NBC is offering a new half-hour series for kids, Drawing Power, set in a cluttered cartoon factory where three animators are turning out "cartoons with a conscience." Comedic interplay among the cartoonists alternates with the animated adventures of offbeat superheroes. END

From the Bible to the bombing of Hiroshima, from the discovery of the Pacific Northwest to nuclear testing, from Alcatraz to Argentina, the networks have been mining the rich vein of history for this season's made-for-TV movies and miniseries. Some of the real-life figures whose stories will be told include Marilyn Monroe, Robert and John Kennedy, Adolf Hitler, Anne Frank and the apostles Peter and Paul.

Because miniseries can be expensive, networks have cut back on their size. Viewers can expect many of the networks' plans to change as the season progresses. Nevertheless, this list of TV-movies, documentaries and other specials will give a good idea of what's in store.

MINISERIES

The Acts of Peter and Paul (CBS, 4 hours) stars Anthony Hopkins in a Biblical drama filmed in Greece.

Alcatraz: The Rock & Clarence Carnes (NBC, 4 hours) tells the story of a man who spent years in the island prison. Art Carney, Telly Savalas and James MacArthur star.

Beulah Land (NBC, 6 hours) features Lesley Ann Warren as mistress of a Southern plantation during the Civil War.

East of Eden (ABC, 7 hours), set in central California during the early part of this century, is an adaptation of John Steinbeck's novel. Jane Seymour and Timothy Bottoms star.

The Gangster Chronicles (NBC, 6 hours), a holdover from last year, mixes fact and fiction in its tale of underworld figures.

Masada (ABC, 8 hours), filmed in Israel, recounts the historic rebellion of a band of Judeans against the Roman army. Peter Strauss and Peter O'Toole star.

A Rumor of War (CBS, 4 hours), based on Philip Caputo's book about Vietnam, was shot in Mexico with Brad Davis, Keith Carradine and Stacy Keach.

Shogun (NBC, 12 hours), the season's first and most ambitious entry, recounts the adventures of a 17th-century English sea captain (Richard Chamberlain) in feudal Japan.

Valley of the Dolls (CBS, 4 hours) retells the Jacqueline Susann novel.

TV-MOVIES AND DRAMAS

Classics and Best Sellers. With Maximilian Schell, Suzanne Pleshette and Trevor Howard, love triumphs in "Arch of Triumph," CBS's adaptation of Erich Maria Remarque's World War II novel. Norman Rosemont is producing "Little Lord Fauntleroy" (starring Ricky Schroder and Alec Guinness) in England for CBS. Books by, among others, James Michener, are the sources for NBC's "Kent State." Robert Blake stars in NBC's version of John Steinbeck's "Of Mice and Men." CBS brings to the screen Charles Dickens' "A Tale of Two Cities," starring Chris Sarandon. The Warsaw Ghetto is the setting for the CBS adaptation of John Hersey's "The Wall." Lee Remick and Colleen Dewhurst star in ABC's "The Women's Room," based on Marilyn French's novel.

Family Dramas. Jane Fonda, in her first TV-movie, plays a strong-willed mother in ABC's "The Dollmaker." A man who testifies against the mob finds himself the frightened head of a "Fugitive Family," a CBS movie. Three hundred relatives get together in "Family Reunion," an NBC movie produced by Norman Lear. Columnist Jimmy Breslin came up with the idea behind NBC's "The Neighborhood," a portrait of life in an ethnic enclave. "Sisters" features Diahann Carroll, Rosalind Cash and Paul Winfield in a story written for NBC by Maya Angelou.

Lawmen. Robert Blake stars as "Joe Dancer," private eye, on NBC. Gary Cooper starred in the first version and now Lee Majors steps into his boots as the sheriff in the CBS sequel to "High Noon." More modern police work is called for in "Pigs vs. Freaks," an NBC movie about the student unrest of the 1960s. Writer Budd Schulberg set his cop drama, "Point Blank," in New York for CBS. "Scared Straight! Another Story" is CBS's fictional sequel to the earlier prison documentary. →

Roman soldiers use a 14-ton battering ram to breach the fortress of Masada in the ABC miniseries.

Political Lives and Docudramas. The 1957 integration of an Arkansas school causes a "Crisis at Central High," a CBS movie starring Joanne Woodward. NBC plans "The Day J.F.K. Died," based on Jim Bishop's book, for November. The recent conflict involving the Nazi Party and the American Civil Liberties Union in Skokie, Ill., is at the heart of CBS's "Defend to the Death." The flamboyant former first lady of Argentina comes to TV in NBC's "Evita Peron." A portrait of Hubert Humphrey is in the works at CBS, as is "Robert Kennedy and His Times," based on Arthur Schlesinger Jr.'s book.

Problems and Conflicts. Mercy killing is the subject of "Act of Love," an NBC film starring Ron Howard. Ralph Waite and Paul Winfield bring the plight of migrant workers to the screen in "Angel City" on CBS. Kristy McNichol infiltrates a religious cult in search of her brother in CBS's "Blinded by the Light." Linda Kelsey mounts a different kind of search for the daughter she gave up for adoption in CBS's "A Perfect Match." Novelist Cornelius Ryan's death from cancer is the subject of CBS's "A Private Battle," starring Anne Jackson and Jack Warden. Paul Newman directs his wife Joanne Woodward in ABC's adaptation of the Broadway play about dying, "The Shadow Box." In NBC's "Skyward," produced by Ron Howard, a paraplegic overcomes her handicap to become an airplane pilot. Johnny Cash is a coal miner struggling to learn to read in "The Testing of Jesse Hallam" on CBS. Struggling to save the life of a stranded whale is Peter Strauss in ABC's "A Whale for the Killing."

Religious Lives. Ken Howard plays a dedicated missionary in "Damien, the Leper Priest" on NBC. Dedication of another sort is portrayed in "Mother Seton," an ABC biography of the first native-born American to be sainted.

Sports. George C. Scott is directing ABC's "Don't Look Back" with Louis Gossett Jr. as baseball player Satchel Paige. Leif Garrett plays featherweight boxer Danny Lopez in a CBS biography. Pittsburgh Steeler Rocky Bleier courageously overcomes an injury in ABC's "Fighting Back," starring Robert Urich and Art Carney. War and Military. "Atomic Soldiers" on CBS examines the effects of nuclear tests on the military men who witnessed them. "Berlin Tunnel" on CBS tells the true story of an escape from East Berlin. Anthony Hopkins plays Adolf Hitler in his last days in CBS's "The Bunker." Another World War II figure is the subject of "Chennault: The Flying Tiger" on CBS. NBC News plans specials in October, November (on the economy) and December.

All three networks plan extensive coverage of the elections.

VARIETY, NOSTALGIA AND GENERAL

Variety. ABC has a lineup of specials headlined by John Davidson, John Denver, Larry Gatlin, Goldie Hawn, Ann-Margret, Burt Reynolds, John Ritter, Donna Summer, John Travolta and Raquel Welch. There will also be several Barbara Walters interview specials.

CBS spotlights Carol Burnett, Lynda Carter, David Copperfield, Bonnie Franklin, Crystal Gayle, Linda Lavin, Shirley MacLaine, Bob Newhart, Kenny Rogers, Diana Ross and Lily Tomlin.

CHILDREN'S AND FAMILY SHOWS

NBC is crowing over its "Project Peacock," a series of 20 prime-time specials aimed at youngsters. "Gnomes" animate a CBS special based on the popular illustrated book. "Faeries" will get equal time on the network. And a CBS institution has a party thrown for him in "Happy Birthday, Captain Kangaroo." On ABC, Benji shares the stage with porpoises from Marineland in the first of his two specials.

Most other children's fare is seasonal. The Berenstain Bears make appearances on NBC at Thanksgiving and Easter. ABC presents "Emmett Otter's Jug-Band Christmas" with Kermit the Frog. And CBS joins in the spirit with "Snow White's Christmas." (END)

"All the President's Men," "Saturday Night Fever," "Love at First Bite," "The Amityville Horror," "Norma Rae," "Julia," "Movie Movie," "Same Time, Next Year" and "Funny Lady" are the toppers among the made-for-movie-goers (i.e., theatrical) movies scheduled for the new season.

Scarlett and Rhett, Dorothy and Toto, Rocky, Annie Hall and that one and original big white shark, among others, will be back too. At this point the networks are promising us six prime-time movie nights (one up from last season, with Thursday the added starter and Saturday still a movieless night), and announcing 54 theatrical films that are on their schedules.

We've learned by now that's only half the story. For last season the three networks also announced a total of 54 theatrical newcomers. Thirteen of these were not shown, but the networks ended up with the TV premieres of 82 theatricals in prime time and 29 in late-movie slots, for a total of 111. We can expect a similar doubling this season, matched by about as many made-for-television movies (see the preceding "Specials" article).

NBC, scheduling films on Mondays, Thursdays and Sundays (unless this Big Event slot is pre-empted by a special), has a list of 20 newcomers, five of them promised for last season but not shown. Topping the list, both alphabetically and qualitatively, is 1976's All the President's Men, William Goldman's Oscar-winning adaptation of the Carl Bernstein-Bob Woodward book reporting their investigation of the June 17, 1972 Watergate burglary and its ramifications. Produced by Robert Redford, who costars as Woodward with Dustin Hoffman as Bernstein, the film, under Alan Pakula's direction, is not only the most authentic movie about journalism to date but also a suspenseful, engrossing account of the prologue to the major moral and political horror of recent years.

A second "class" item is Fred Zinnemann's 1977 Julia, with Vanessa Redgrave and Jane Fonda extraordinary in Lillian Hellman's story of two women, one who pursued heroism to its tragic end, another who came to it briefly.

For fun, Stanley Donen's 1979 Movie Movie is the ultimate hommage to those feel-good movie movies of the '30s and '40s. This one's a delicious re-creation of a double feature, "Dynamite Hands" (a fight flick) and "Baxter's Beauties of 1933," with George C. Scott heading a fine cast. Along those old-time lines, if you're a sucker for shimmering desert scenes and Foreign Legionnaires, you'll have fun with Dick Richards' 1977 March or Die, as exotic an adventure-melodrama as the '30s ever produced.

For chills, 1978's The Boys from Brazil, based on the Ira Levin best seller, offers Laurence Olivier and Gregory Peck in a fantastic duel (of wits, wiles and bloody battling) to the death. 1978's Eyes of Laura Mars offers stylish high fashion and low crime involving Faye Dunaway as a chic photographer with premonitions, and Tommy Lee Jones as an understanding cop. 1979's Magic isn't as suspenseful as William Goldman's book about a schizophrenic ventriloquist, but Anthony Hopkins is dazzling as the protagonist.

The dazzle in 1977's New York, New York is Liza Minnelli and Robert De Niro rather than Martin Scorcese's overlong, downbeat pastiche of a '40s musical romance. Upbeat and for special funny bones is 1979's Meatballs, a summer-camp lunacy that carries on the "Animal House" tradition.

On a presumably adult level, Sylvester Stallone's 1978 Paradise Alley, set in 1946, tells of three brothers literally wrestling their way out of New York City's slums. 1978's The Boys in Company C puts the stereotypes of World War II into Vietnam, updating them with *M*A*S*H*-like humor and bleepable words.

For the sci-fi and/or horrors crowd, 1979's Goldengirl offers Susan Anton as a gorgeous monster bred to win Olympic track medals, and 1978's Piranha has a whole kiddy camp and summer resort consumed by those → vicious fish. For the curious, 1979's In Search of Historic Jesus is a Sunn Classic manufacture focused in part on the shroud of Turin. And at the bottom of NBC's barrel lies Clint Eastwood's 1977 The Gauntlet, a stale tale of a stupid cop that's varnished with foul language and garnished with violence.

And once again NBC has scheduled some goodies it announced for last season but didn't show: Herbert Ross's 1976 The Seven-Per-Cent Solution, a delightful Victorian charade involving Sherlock Holmes and Sigmund Freud; 1976's The Slipper and the Rose, Bryan Forbes' exquisite Cinderella story with Richard Chamberlain and Gemma Craven; and 1970's Woodstock, that documentary showcase of the 1969 festival's rock talent. The other holdovers announced for this year are 1978's Almost Summer, a sophomoric tale of high-school love and politics; and 1977's The Car, a dumbness about a demonic auto. But NBC promises such repeats as Smokey and the Bandit, Dog Day Afternoon, American Graffiti, Family Plot and The End.

CBS, sticking to its Tuesday and Wednesday movie slots, is scheduling 17 new theatricals. Last year it announced 19 and delivered 25, but it still has not shown two Gene Wilder vehicles, 1975's The Adventure of Sherlock Holmes' Smarter Brother and 1977's The World's Greatest Lover; the 1978 remake of The Big Sleep; 1978's The Duellists; 1977's I Never Promised You a Rose Garden; or, announced for the 1978-79 season, in fact, Elia Kazan's 1976 The Last Tycoon.

The accent is on froth rather than "class" in the CBS acquisitions. 1978's Who Is Killing the Great Chefs of Europe? is a crime caper to the gourmet's taste, with wonderfully witty lines and Robert Morley, George Segal and lovely Jacqueline Bisset on hand to → do them justice. 1979's Love at First Bite, Robert Kaufman's ribald and satiric tale of a present-day Dracula, offers producer-star George Hamilton as the lovesick Transylvanian mooning over a New York high-fashion model. And Goldie Hawn and Chevy Chase, with a neat side bit by Dudley Moore, revive the Hitchcock mix of romantic comedy and crime in good form in 1978's Foul Play.

For noncriminal comedy romance, 1978's Same Time, Next Year provides fine adult entertainment, with Alan Alda and Ellen Burstyn as the young married people who meet by chance in 1951 and annually thereafter for 26 years. On a different romantic level, 1979's Butch and Sundance: The Early Days offers a laid-back fiction of how those not very bright but very charming badmen started out, portrayed this time by Tom Berenger and William Katt. Gabriel Kaplan is the particular pleasure of 1979's Fast Break, a delightful update of the campus-capers big-game (in this case basketball) comedy-drama. And who'd want more than Burt Reynolds as a veteran stuntman involved in crash-bang and Hollywood in-jokes and romance with Sally Field in 1978's Hooper?

The biggie at CBS is 1979's The Amityville Horror, the most boring, illogical and inept horror movie to have made $35 million at the box office. Still, it doesn't quite compare with 1978's The Fury, a "psychic" thriller wherein Amy Irving can make people gush blood by touching them and Andrew Stevens goes her one better by making his gushers levitate and whirl like rotating ceiling sprinklers.

For families who prefer the gush of tears, CBS has several items. The 1979 remake of that 1931 weeper about a broken-down boxer and his adoring son, The Champ, will make strong men weep, with Jon Voight as the not very bright dad, Faye Dunaway as the emotionally muddled mom and Ricky Schroder the cutest kid around. Tatum O'Neal is all talent and uncute in 1978's International Velvet, a sequel to 1944's "National Velvet" that's a swell story about a girl and a horse when it isn't being a soggy and sentimental domestic drama. And if you'd like to think that a beautiful deaf girl who wants to be a dancer will meet—across a crowded railroad station—a handsome disco musician who'll make her dreams come true, you'll revel in 1979's Voices.

From tears to melodrama, there's the potboiling of 1979's Avalanche Express, a clunky "thriller" that wastes a star-studded cast on cheap-jack plot and production; and 1978's The Chosen (originally "Holocaust 2000"), wherein Kirk Douglas's rotten demonic kid is going to blow up the world.

For that "youth" market cherished by the industry, CBS has 1978's Corvette Summer, a pretentious, unfunny romance between a high-school boy and a car; and 1978's The Wiz, based on the Broadway musical. The movie, with Diana Ross, then 34, as Dorothy, is razzle-dazzle lavish and as vulgar as it is banal. And finally, there's 1974's The Trial of Billy Jack, a dated youth film that's strictly for yahoos.

For compensation, CBS will repeat 1939's Gone with the Wind and The Wizard of Oz, 1976's Rocky and 1973's The Exorcist.

ABC, which last season announced eight new films and wound up with 24, has 17 on its schedule so far for its Sunday and Friday movie slots. And its ace is that slam-bang hit of the '70s, 1977's Saturday Night Fever, which catapulted John Travolta to stardom and earned $73 million. Forget the clichéd story about dese-dem-dose guys learning about life and, like Travolta's charismatic Tony, live for the disco numbers—they're knockouts!

From Travolta, go to Streisand, with three of Barbra's films on the schedule. Her topper is 1975's Funny Lady, a continuation of the Fanny Brice story begun in 1968's "Funny Girl," → with Streisand superb in this stylish tale of a woman who was very funny and very much a lady. There's 1976 Streisand in A Star Is Born, a self-indulgent remake that manages to make the rock world boring. There's truer grit to the nonsinging Streisand of 1979's The Main Event, with Barbra managing prizefighter Ryan O'Neal in a role-reversal comedy that runs out of steam.

Norma Rae, which won Sally Field the 1979 Best Actress Oscar in the title role, is first-rate, an exciting and touching tale of a woman's consciousness-raising through the labor movement. 1978's California Suite has fine performances by Maggie Smith, Jane Fonda, Michael Caine, Alan Alda and others but bogs down in Neil Simon's overmix of sophistication and slapstick. There's more consistent fun to 1978's The Big Fix, with Richard Dreyfuss the private eye in this detective thriller that has nice twists, bright lines and something to say about growing up in the '60s.

Sally Field in her Oscar-winning role in 'Norma Rae.'

For an old-fashioned mystery laced with chilling topicality, Michael Crichton's 1978 Coma offers some terrible medical goings-on and Genevieve Bujold as an adult Nancy Drew. 1978's Invasion of the Body Snatchers is a relatively satisfying update of the 1956 classic, but it winds up more depressing than scarifying on a contemporary basis. You might opt for the crisp, crunchy, delectable pleasures of 007's return in 1977's The Spy Who Loved Me, featuring Roger Moore, all we've loved about James Bond movies and a marvelous new steel-dentured villain known as Jaws.

On a lesser level, 1978's The Brink's Job is a finely detailed period-soaked re-creation of the $2.7-million robbery of a Brink's Boston terminal in 1950. In grim contrast, 1978's Midnight Express details the horrors an American hash smuggler undergoes in a Turkish prison; though fact-based, its morality is muddled by its emphasis on the sordid and perverted.

Carl Reiner's 1978 The One and Only, a tale of a show-biz "crazy" tailor-made for Henry Winkler's talents, has some fine moments and a lot of dreary ones. And 1978's The Bad News Bears Go to Japan wrings dry the possibilities of those kid ballplayers.

Clint Eastwood's 1976 The Enforcer, the third Dirty Harry Callahan flick, runs that macho-cop series into the ground—we'd hope 6 feet under. Machismo itself bites the dust in Sam Peckinpah's 1978 Convoy, a tedious, mindless series of crooked-cop-vs.-independent-trucker chases, brawls and crashes. It's enough to make you wish the great white shark in 1978's Jaws 2, the dopey sequel to the 1975 thriller, would stop munching on teen-agers and go after truckers.

But ABC has scheduled repeats of the original Jaws to remind us of how good shark scares once were. Its repeat list also happily includes 1977's Annie Hall, 1978's An Unmarried Woman, 1973's The Way We Were and 1974's Murder on the Orient Express.

All in all, the season seems a good one for movie watchers. (END)

Breaking Away

Sunny-natured Dave Stohler (Shaun Cassidy), sometimes known to his buddies as Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Ravioli, has two passions: bicycle racing and things Neapolitan. Combinations of the two, such as Italian bikes or biking Italians, are best of all. His buddies are Mike (Tom Wiggin), the athletic one; Cyril (Thom Bray), the wry one; and Moocher (Jackie Earle Haley), the practical one who gets physical when anyone calls him "Shorty." As the four high-school grads decide what to do with their lives, only two things are certain: (1) they will stick together; (2) they will frequently collide with the guys on Fraternity Row in this Midwestern college town. Dave's parents (Vincent Gardenia and Barbara Barrie) look on with a mixture of love, concern, exasperation and the devout hope that an adaptation of an Oscar-winning movie set in Bloomington, Ind., will also play in Peoria—on TV, ABC. Pictured (clockwise from front): Shaun Cassidy, Barbara Barrie, Vincent Gardenia.

Hill Street Blues

The Hill Street police station is located in the kind of neighborhood that gives slums a bad name. The squad room is littered with assorted muggers, flashy dudes and gaudy ladies of the night. The real enemy, however, is sociology, in the guise of jargon-spouting cops, not to mention school groups that want to interface with the police experience and meet some alleged perpetrators. Interfacing with all these culprits are, among others, Capt. Frank Furillo (Daniel Travanti), recently divorced and dating his sometime adversary, Joyce Davenport (Veronica Hamel); Sgt. Phillip Esterhaus (Michael Conrad), also recently divorced and dating a high-school senior; and Mick Belker (Bruce Weitz), a Serpico parody with a reputation for biting felons. MTM Enterprises is the alleged perpetrator of this series, which tries to walk the fine line between the comedy of Barney Miller and the drama of Kojak. Secrets of Midland Heights

Just for argument's sake, let's say you love soap operas but you're sick of oil, tired of Texas and just don't care who shot J.R. Has CBS got a series for you! Midland Heights is your typical, small Midwestern college town. To wit: Lisa likes Burt, the football hero, but he suspects she's also seeing Mark, the frat rat. Right, Burt! She's also flirting with Cal, her former high-school teacher. Then there's Holly, who wants to have a fling with Teddy, until she discovers that her mother is already having a fling with Teddy's father. Meanwhile, Ann the heiress and John the dropout are seeing each other on the sly. Fortunately, there's a moral to all this. As Lisa craftily tells Burt, "We have to trust each other. If we don't, what do we have?" The answer, of course: is a TV series. CBS. Pictured (foreground): Martha Scott, Jordan Christopher; (second row, l.-r.): Lorenzo Lamas, Linda Hamilton, Jim Youngs, Doran Clark, Daniel Zippi.

Freebie and the Bean

Freebie (Tom Mason) is the swinging bachelor who drives flashy sports cars. The Bean (Hector Elizondo)—thinnish hair, mustache—is the conservative family man who drives a compact car with dangling baby shoes and head-jiggling doggies in the window. But what these two bantering, bickering, special-assignment cops mainly drive is each other crazy. Freebie is a constant source of off-the-wall wisdom ("If you'd walk on the balls of your feet, you wouldn't need to eat bran cereal"), while Bean tries out exotic hair restorers that smell like eau de beached whale. Their job is to get the goods on underworld characters for their boss, the long-suffering D.A. (William Daniels). Actually, that's their second priority. The first is to pray that this series won't end up like one of their typical stakeouts: "We been in the wrong place at the wrong time for a month." CBS. Pictured: Tom Mason, Hector Elizondo.

Those Amazing Animals

How do you put on a series that slyly but safely offers sex, violence, heartwarming tales, chills, thrills and—yes—unabashed nudity? ABC knows how. Just turn your cameras on the entertaining beasts that populate the planet and you have Those Amazing Animals, a series whose premise is that fauna can be fun. Fawning over the fauna are hosts Burgess Meredith, Jim Stafford and Priscilla Presley, who will introduce you to Nino, a parrot that sings opera. You'll meet the Heart of Texas Snake Handlers Club, whose members walk barefoot through rattlers. You'll meet "talking" chimps and pigeons that carry blood samples. And while you're meeting up with these critters, they'll be meeting head-on with 60 Minutes and Disney's Wonderful World on Sunday nights. Well, they're ready. They know it's a jungle out there. ABC. Pictured (clockwise from front): Burgess Meredith, Jim Stafford, Priscilla Presley.

Ladies' Man

Alan Thackeray (Lawrence Pressman) has been hired as the token male on Woman's Life, a magazine whose staff is thoroughly female. There's Susan (Allison Argo), who's levelheaded; Gretchen (Simone Griffeth), who's into feminism; and Andrea (Betty Kennedy), who's man-crazy. The editor, Elaine Holstein (Louise Sorel), greets Alan's arrival like a visitation of psoriasis. "I have two unassigned articles for this issue," she tells him. "One of them is 'Seventeen Ways with Tuna Fish'." Alan: "I'll take the other one." Holstein: "I thought you would." Alan: "What is it?" Holstein: "'Sexual Harassment and the Working Woman'." When he's not being harassed by Holstein, Alan trades quips with his daughter Amy, 9 (Natasha Ryan), and his neighbor Betty (Karen Morrow), who is always willing to be helpful. NIGHTTIME

The prime-time schedule in the chart below will not take effect until the new season begins in earnest—and even then the schedule is virtually guaranteed to change without notice. The actors' strike has thrown the networks' best-laid plans into a cocked hat, and there's no telling what the schedule will look like when the dust settles. It's entirely possible that some of the new season's series will be postponed—or even canceled—because of the strike.

The Screening Room

Previews of noteworthy series and specials by TV GUIDE programming editors.
For movie choices, see 'This Week's Movies,' by Judith Crist, in this section.

Television's September pickings may be slimmer than usual this year, but not this week: dominating NBC's schedule is the long-awaited Shogun.

MONDAY. The romantic sweep, cultural richness and overwhelming sense of power in the miniseries Shogun (beginning tonight at 8 on NBC) may prompt viewers to draw comparisons with Roots or The Godfather saga. And those comparisons are valid: this sprawling saga of manners and mores in early 17th-century Japan is handsomely photographed (entirely on location); faithfully adapted from the novel written by James Clavell, who oversaw the production as executive producer; and well acted by an international cast headed by Richard Chamberlain as a stranded English helmsman swept into the stratagems of a calculating warlord (Toshiro Mifune)—and into an affair with a married noblewoman (Yoko Shimada). Sure, there are lapses and complexities in the drama (notably a good deal of untranslated Japanese dialogue) that may confound some viewers. But on the whole, Shogun represents an ambitious attempt to tell an entertaining story that's steeped in history . . . Joan Robinson: One Woman's Story (8 PBS) chronicles the last two years in the life of a terminal-cancer patient. As a graphic record of Joan Robinson's trials—both physical and emotional—this repeat pulls no punches. Indeed, some may find the documentary too graphic, especially in its final scenes. But what also emerges is an honest portrayal of a quietly courageous woman with a fierce—and at times desperate—will to live.

TUESDAY. On an upbeat musical outing, Lynda Carter (10 CBS) displays verve and versatility, from duets with Tom Jones and Merle Haggard to hijinks in a rock-and-roll production number in which she does takeoffs on such stars as Bette Midler (singing "Friends" while wearing a boa of bananas and being backed by a dancing chorus costumed as gorillas) and Tina Turner . . . The San Francisco Symphony Inaugural Gala (10 PBS; live to most areas) opens the Louise M. Davies Symphony Hall with a wide variety of classical music. There's a contemporary work (the world premiere of Pulitzer Prize-winning composer David Del Tredici's "Happy Voices"); a Mendelssohn piano concerto (his First, featuring pianist Rudolf Serkin); and perhaps the best-known symphony ever written (Beethoven's majestic Fifth).

WEDNESDAY. In a clap-along, sing-along repeat called Dolly & Carol in Nashville (8 CBS), the Dolly is Parton, the Carol is Burnett and the setting is the Grand Ole Opry, where the ladies get down into country music, harmonize on gospel and swing into a medley of pop tunes . . . One of the last Shakespeare Plays, "The Tempest" (8 PBS), is a work of mystery and fantasy set on an enchanted island, where the sorcerer Prospero has shipwrecked his enemies. Highlighting this rerun is Michael Hordern's portrayal of Prospero—the actor's favorite among his many Shakespearean roles.

In some areas network shows may not be seen on the days and at the times indicated. Times are Eastern.

CBS Scheduling Rekindles Debate Over Redgrave Film

Hollywood—"We're not trying to hide anything," said a CBS spokesman about the sudden announcement of a Sept. 30 air date for "Playing for Time." The TV-movie is controversial because it deals with a Jewish survivor of a Nazi death camp and stars Vanessa Redgrave, an avowed anti-Zionist and a supporter of the Palestine Liberation Organization. Normally, the air date for such an important movie would be announced many weeks in advance, and a major promotion effort would be made in the film's behalf. "The actors' strike has forced us to announce our schedule one week at a time," the CBS spokesman said. "In fact, we are a week ahead of ourselves." But the film's opponents suspected the announcement of the air date was delayed to make it more difficult for them to organize an effective protest. They had earlier hoped that their outcry last year would persuade CBS to drop the film entirely.

"The use of Redgrave," said Lila Garrett, an independent producer who led an industry protest, "was, to say the least, indiscreet, and if it was inadvertent, it was incredibly stupid."

CBS has begun showing the movie, written by Arthur Miller, to prospective advertisers. "A lot of people who saw it were weeping," said a CBS executive. But two admen, Bruce Cox, vice president of Compton Advertising, and Larry Lamattina, vice president of Grey Advertising, reportedly said the movie might be "too depressing" for their clients. A CBS sales executive, however, said, "We expect the program to be fully sponsored." And, in spite of the controversy, a network spokesman said that none of CBS's more than 200 affiliated stations had decided not to carry the film.

From the outset of the bitter dispute, CBS has maintained that it would broadcast the movie, and that the decision to use Redgrave was an artistic one and not political. Many Jewish groups, including the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith and the American Jewish Congress, have protested the choice of Miss Redgrave. They said it "degrades" the memory of the six million Jews who died in Nazi concentration camps. —Frank Swertlow

New York—Fred Silverman can breathe a little easier about his future as president of NBC. The NBC board of directors has voted to extend his contract to Dec. 31, 1982. The original three-year deal (at $1 million a year) had been scheduled to expire next June, and the upcoming fall season had loomed as Silverman's last hope for pulling his third-place network up to No. 1 in the ratings. "He's thrilled," said an NBC spokesman. "It's exactly what he wanted. It gives him two more seasons."

Bob Schieffer is leaving his post as anchorman on CBS's Morning news show and moving to Washington as a CBS national correspondent. No replacement has been named, but Charles Kuralt is considered a strong possibility. CBS made the move to strengthen its Washington bureau.

As We See It

☐ Every year at this time, we play a little game called Guess-the-Gimmick. The object of the game is to cast an analytical eye at the lineup of new fall series and try to figure out what was going through the heads of network programmers when they made their fateful selections. Why did they choose these programs? (Viewers frequently ask that question in ever more anguished tones after they've seen a few episodes, but that doesn't count.)

Two trends are evident this year. One, spawned by the success of Dallas, is toward more prime-time soap operas. The other, engendered by the big ratings of 60 Minutes and Real People, is toward programs based on "reality."

☐ But if there's one word that sums up the fall season, it's derivative. Of the 14 new shows, eight are knockoffs, spinoffs or direct adaptations of earlier successes. Four of them—Flamingo Road, Breaking Away, Harper Valley PTA and Freebie and the Bean—are TV versions of theatrical movies; and Bosom Buddies is clearly "Some Like It Hot" in modern dress (and we do mean dress).

Enos is a spinoff of The Dukes of Hazzard; Those Amazing Animals is a direct descendant of That's Incredible!; and Secrets of Midland Heights can fairly be described as Dallas for college kids.

☐ Network executives keep promising innovation and keep delivering imitation. Some copycatting goes on every year, but it seems more prevalent than ever in this year's crop.

We don't know what's behind all that cautious cloning, and maybe it doesn't matter. It's a bit early for grousing. Now is the time for all good viewers to remain charitably open-minded. A show that's derivative is not necessarily bad for that reason. Indeed, it might well be better than the program it's emulating. As always, there's only one way to tell: check out the new series yourself—once they get started—and make up your own mind.

IF YOU NEED TO BUILD UP YOUR BLOOD DON'T COUNT ON VITAMINS

Iron poor blood is the most widespread nutritional ailment in America today. In fact, it's a problem that millions of American women face. And all the vitamins in the world can't help, because vitamins don't contain iron.

Take GERITOL, America's #1 iron and vitamin supplement. GERITOL is so rich in iron, just one tablet contains more iron than even a pound of calf's liver. Plus vitamins important to your health.

GERITOL will actually build iron poor blood back to normal. That's what makes it different from just plain vitamins—and so important to you.

THE EYE OF THE BEHOLDER

I want to thank you for the very luscious cover photo and article on "The Incredible Hunks" [Aug. 16]. Women (some of us, at least) enjoy looking at well-built, attractive men, and prefer a Tom Wopat or Erik Estrada to a Charlie's Angel any day.

Pamela Miller
Chicago

Writing an article about "beefcake" on TV without mentioning Gil Gerard is like writing a travel guide to Paris without mentioning the Eiffel Tower.

Alice Ester
Minneapolis

You forgot Robert Urich of Vega$, who must have the best body on television.

Lisa Dixon
Petaluma, Cal.

So Ron Glass wants women to ask before they touch. In case he hasn't noticed, men have been pinching and petting women without permission for years. If he doesn't like it, he can take his body off the display rack. As for the others—they're cute, sure, but mere boys.

Kip Squire
Medford, Ore.

"The Incredible Hunks"! Hah! Those puerile youths couldn't raise the blood pressure of a lady bedbug! Women don't want mere lads. They want men. Sex appeal does not die at age 30! You see, we riper women know men are people too, and the men who arouse us are human before they are "hunks."

SLOGANS

I refuse to believe that a network's slogan—no matter how clever, apt or catchy—can "sell" that network; that is, induce viewers to watch it solely on the basis of its image ["Poetry in Promotion," Aug. 16]. This may sound obvious, but I set my dial according to the desired program, without even stopping to consider what network it is on.

BLOW-BY-BLOW

Stephen Chapman's suggestions for improving coverage of boxing are my sentiments exactly ["TV Boxing—Where's the Punch?" Aug. 16]! TV seems to let other sports run into overtime, but when a boxing bout begins to take up too much time, the broadcasters still manage to squeeze in their commercials and cut out interesting replays or interviews, no matter what the cost to the home viewers. I'm glad to see boxing back on the air, but let's have a little more respect.

Mrs. S. Lawson
Rockville, Ind.

At last Mr. Chapman has voiced an idea that I have had for years. Would it be such a sin for ABC to admit that Howard Cosell knows only a little bit about a lot of sports? My generation has spent years learning the ins and outs of football. Why not give us the same chance now with boxing? Let's have intelligent commentary from someone who truly knows the sport. Perhaps then we could learn something, as well as hear an informed opinion of the fight.

Phyllis Borman
Chisago City, Minn.

Contrary to Stephen Chapman, I vote nay on Chris Schenkel's blow-by-blow boxing commentary. ABC has also tried to put us to sleep with his golf commentary. I was one of the many to write in protest against those long afternoon naps. The boxers themselves know who really is telling it like it is, and you can see how honored they are when Howard Cosell is there to greet them at ringside.

This Week's Movies By Judith Crist

Saturday, CBS	The Big Sleep
Sunday, ABC	The Women's Room
Sunday, NBC	The Drowning Pool
Monday, CBS	Foul Play
Wednesday, CBS	Rodeo Girl
Thursday, CBS	A Piece of the Action
Friday, ABC	Once upon a Spy

For first-of-the-season trend-spotters the omens are clear this network-movie week: liberated women are going to be big, big, big in movies made for television.

The real biggie, for starters, is The Women's Room, a three-hour adaptation of the Marilyn French novel by Carol Sobieski. A sudsier review of the benighted state of the American matron during the '50s and '60s would be hard to find on daytime opera; in prime time it's a feminist tract set to Sturm und Drang. Sobieski's easy style (constrained, of course, by French's simplistic concepts), the personal appeal of Lee Remick as the protagonist and the richness of the in-period production make the movie watchable. If one pauses to ponder along the way, however, all is lost.

The story, told largely in flashback, is of a woman who apparently never had an idea or sexual satisfaction in her 38 years, half of them spent married to a self-centered cad while raising two brattish boys and socializing with other equally masochistic suburban matrons married to cheats, drunks, deadbeats and sadists. Victorian wives never had it so rotten; nowhere are we given a hint that some women have, in the course of this century, enjoyed marriage, careers or both. Remick's friends opt for adultery or insanity; she tries suicide (rather than face divorce from the cad) and then goes back to college, presumably on alimony (unmentioned), in 1968, with campus furor and feminism in flower. Once again in TV-Movieland, a woman literally lets down her hair and cavorts with a younger man. This restores the roses to her cheeks and she winds up as a college lecturer, getting a standing ovation when she assures her packed classroom that "a woman is a person who makes choices." Without, alas, our heroine's having made so many wrong ones (though mommy and hubby get all the blame), there'd have been no three-hour story. The good supporting cast is headed by Colleen Dewhurst, once again typecast, playing a Falstaffian feminist leader with gusto and guffaws.

It's all said and done far more succinctly and entertainingly in Rodeo Girl, written by Katharyn Michaelian Powers and directed by Jackie Cooper. The "girl," lovely Katharine Ross, is happily married to a rodeo champion and competes in the women's barrel-racing event. But she hankers for more and her husband, albeit reluctantly, is supportive. His resentment grows as she becomes involved in the all-women rodeo circuit, going on to bareback riding and steer roping. The crisis comes when she finds she's pregnant, with the national competition a few weeks away. Can a man watch his wife "risk killing our baby"? Will she? There's intelligent consideration of the issues of women's aspirations and responsibilities. Ross and Bo Hopkins, as the husband, give us an inkling of what love, marriage and individuality are about; Candy Clark as Ross's partner and Jacqueline Brookes as her mother supplement it. Not surprisingly, the story was "inspired" by that of Sue Pirtle, seven times a rodeo world-champion.

The third new TV-movie, Once upon a Spy, was unavailable for preview, but it presents Eleanor Parker as the head of an investigative agency.

The cream of the new theatrical crop is 1978's Foul Play, a delightful romantic comedy-suspenser in the Hitchcock tradition, written and directed by Colin Higgins. Goldie Hawn gives her best performance to date as Gloria Mundy, librarian, beset by baddies, with Chevy Chase the very cool detective who attempts to protect her. It's fun and frolic in handsome San Francisco, with Hawn as clever as she is kooky and Chase at his pratfall best.

Sidney Poitier directs and costars with Bill Cosby to provide pleasing family fare in 1977's A Piece of the Action. There's something for everyone and a million little moral lessons in this tale of two crooks who are blackmailed into working at a slum community center in Chicago. But the charm of the Poitier-Cosby team keeps the slickery from offending.

1978's The Big Sleep is marked by sheer artistic ineptitude—let alone the sheer chutzpah involved in a remake of that Raymond Chandler work in the light of the 1946 Howard Hawks classic with Bogart and Bacall. This incoherent muddle, written and directed by Michael Winner and set in contemporary England, wastes time and talent. Robert Mitchum, the ultimate Philip Marlowe in 1975's "Farewell, My Lovely," is portly, sober and sententious in this one.

The week's one repeat is of 1975's The Drowning Pool, with Paul Newman, a trite private-eye tale loosely based on the Ross MacDonald novel.

In some areas network movies may not be seen on the days indicated.

LOVE IN ACADEMIA

R.H. Thomson, Tony Van Bridge and Dixie Seatle

Special: Willy Doyle (Dixie Seatle) comes to the big city with two objectives: landing a job and finding a man.

The first is relatively easy for the published Ph.D.: she's hired to teach a university English course. The second is harder—not because Willy can't find a man, but because she has three to worry about.

One is a smooth-talking student (Nicholas Campbell) who's interested in after-hours tutoring. Willy agrees to help— though she knows his intentions are far from academic.

Colleague John Trueman (R.H. Thomson) is a more likely prospect. He's helpful, handsome and witty, but seems intent on keeping Willy at arm's length.

Most puzzling is Archie (Tony Van Bridge), the elderly department head. He's usually gruff—often downright rude—but there are times when Willy suspects he may be a kindred spirit. (90 min.)

TAKE ME UP TO THE BALLGAME
7 PM 5

THE EARTH STRIKES BACK

Special: Baseball and science fiction meet in an animated fantasy.

Beaver's ball club is no roaring success: he's burdened with a team that includes a disgruntled eagle, a lackadaisical cat and a turtle whose reflexes are . . . well, turtle-like. They're just the target for a slick ("trust me") promoter named Irwin (voice of Phil Silvers), who whisks them away in his souped-up spaceship for a game against the undefeated Alien All-Stars—champions of the universe.

From the opening pitch, the "friendly little interstellar encounter" is anything but close. The Aliens jump out to an early 99-0 lead through a combination of power hitting, unscrupulous plays and shady gimmicks. Finally, when the earthlings are about ready to hang up their cleats, Beaver calls a much-needed timeout to plan their comeback.

Script by Ken Sobol; songs performed by Rick Danko (formerly of The Band).

Other Voices . . . Beaver: Bobby Dermer. Eagle: Derek McGrath. Commissioner: Don Ferguson. Announcer: Paul Soles. Edna: Anna Bourque. Jake: Maurice LaMarche. Mole: Melleny Brown.

Thousands have paid dollars more for this world-famous knife!

The World's most Luxurious folding hunting knife, NOW Only $6.99!

Here's a classic, folding hunting knife you'll be proud to carry, proud to use out there in the great outdoors. It's a fully-featured knife, 4" long, with a barrel and bolsters forged from a massive block of solid brass. And hardwood handles are rivited to the body to give you a safe, sure grip.

The blade is razor-sharp, hand honed stainless steel, 3¼" long. And, it's probably the safest folding knife ever made. When you snap open the blade, a spring-steel bar locks the blade in place. It simply can't be closed until you release the lock.

This is the knife for hunting and fishing, for camping, for just plain cutting up around the house. Similar knives sell for up to $25, and this exact same knife is nationally advertised for dollars more than our low, low $6.99. And, if you order now, we'll even engrave your initials FREE in a solid brass plate on the side of the knife.

A $20 MILLION MINISERIES

Richard Chamberlain and Yoko Shimada

Debut: Twelve hours in a world of pomp and power—17th-century Japan.

That's the setting for this five-part drama (continuing through Friday), which chronicles the adventures of a shipwrecked English navigator named John Blackthorne (Richard Chamberlain), who finds intrigue and romance in a feudal, violent yet courtly society of obeisant women, sword-wielding samurai and ambitious warlords striving to become shogun: supreme military dictator.

Tonight, Blackthorne fathoms culture shock through hard-learned lessons in obedience, honor and respect taught through encounters with an obdurate samurai (Yuki Meguro); the fearsome warlord Toranaga (Toshiro Mifune); and traders and missionaries from his country's enemy, Portugal, who have established a stronghold in Japan.

Based on James Clavell's novel and filmed on location, the production makes extensive use of Japanese dialogue.

Orson Welles is the narrator. Additional Cast (Part 1) . . . Mariko: Yoko Shimada. Rodrigues: John Rhys-Davies. Father Alvito: Damien Thomas. Yabu: Frankie Sakai. Father Sebastio: Leon Lissek. Dell'Aqua: Alan Badel. Friar Domingo: Michael Hordern. (3 hrs.)

That's not the only corpse to appear (and disappear) over the next few days, and it's only after Gloria is pursued, kidnaped and assaulted that she comes under the protection of a police detective (Chevy Chase) who soon discovers that Gloria holds the key to a major assassination plot.

This 1978 film was written and directed by Colin Higgins.

Additional cast . . . Stanley: Dudley Moore. Hennesey: Burgess Meredith. Fergie: Brian Dennehy. Gerda: Rachel Roberts.

An Amazing New Diet Idea!

HOW TO BURN OFF BODY FAT, HOUR-BY-HOUR!

MEDICAL DOCTOR'S NEW PROGRAM BURNS AWAY MORE FAT AND FLUID THAN IF YOU RAN 98 MILES PER WEEK!

Dear Friend,

My name is Don Schwerdtfeger. I am an M.D. and have been practicing medicine in San Diego for 14 years.

I am reproducing my business card at the bottom of this page and I am writing to ask you a personal favor.

If you will do this favor for me you will be helping me with my program and I will gladly pay you for your help.

Here is what it is all about: I am a psychiatrist and in addition to my other patients I have been helping people with alcohol and drug addictions. So far, I have treated more than 2500 various types of drug addicts.

But strangely enough, over the years, my practice has taught me that over eating is even more difficult to deal with than many hard-core drug addictions.

Some time ago I began to realize that any person who is overweight needs much more than just a diet. I now know that every overweight person needs an all-out fat-fighting weapon that is both safe and very powerful!

Finally, after years of research, I feel I have developed just such a weapon. What it consists of is a diet product that I call diet bullets and a system that when used together make up my program that actually burns off body fat, hour-by-hour!

Believe it or not, my diet system burns away more fat and fluid than if you ran 98 miles per week.

Many of the people who have tested my program have lost as much as 1⅞ pounds of fat and fluid every day for the first week. Actually, many people have reported a 6 pound weight loss in just the first 48 hours! After the first week, many people continue to lose as much as 8 pounds every two weeks thereafter. Depending of course on the amount of weight they had to lose, some people (who were very obese) have used my method to lose 50, 60 and even 100 pounds and more. Of course I cannot guarantee that you will lose weight as fast as these people have, and I only cite these figures to tell you what other people have reported to me. To be quite honest, some people have reported less and some people have even reported losing more.

When you begin to use this program, you can expect to be able to measure the difference in your waistline in just 24 to 48 hours. You will probably lose more inches each week than even if you faithfully did hundreds of situps every day. You may very well lose as much as 3 to 5 inches off your waistline in the first month. If you are a woman you can lose as much as a full dress size in only 7 days.

Apparently what happens is that my diet system allows your body to break down your excess body fat and flush it out of your system forever.

The amazing thing, of course, is the speed at which this system works. It is rather remarkable to read letters from people who have thrown off as much as 6 pounds of fat and fluid in the very first weekend. Just imagine how it must feel to drop up to 1⅞ pounds a day and shrink your waistline up to 3 inches the first week.

Please understand, I am not trying to give you the impression that my program is a scientific breakthrough, new discovery, or some magical, mystical hocus pocus concoction. My program is based on very real biological, psychological and physical facts known to be true in the medical community as to why people gain weight.

ABOUT DOCTOR SCHWERDTFEGER

Don Schwerdtfeger, M.D. has been practicing medicine in San Diego for 14 years. During that time he has treated more than 2500 heroin addicts. However, he now believes that over eating is even more difficult to deal with than many hard-core drug addictions. That's why he has developed the super fast diet system he is writing about on this page. He has also just completed a new book titled "The Secret Truth About Fat People," that is now available at your local book store, or you may order a copy by sending $11.95 to Millburn Products, or by calling the toll free numbers in this ad. Dr. Schwerdtfeger is available on a limited basis for interviews concerning his new book and the contents of this advertisement and he can be contacted at the address on his business card which is reproduced below.

". . . Imagine how it must feel to drop up to 1⅞ pounds a day and shrink your waistline up to 3 inches the first week . . ."

My first concern when I developed this program was safety. Therefore, diet bullets are made of 100% natural ingredients. I first tested them and my system on myself and I now use them religiously every day. I have found that my program can help people from those that need to only lose a few pounds up to those who have been hopelessly overweight all of their lives, including people who need to lose 20 to 30 or 70 pounds or more.

My diet program does not produce a specific spot reduction, but if you are considerably overweight a significant overall loss of excess pounds could easily mean that you could lose:

- inches off waistline
- inches off stomach
- inches off buttocks
- inches off thighs
- inches off hips

Remember — you don't have to wait weeks for results with my system. It starts instantly! You can actually see the results in just a few days.

Obviously, this, or any diet program for that matter, requires a certain amount of will power and self-control to do justice to it; even if it's only enough to start and stay on it.

"... The amazing thing, of course, is the speed at which this system works. It is rather remarkable to read letters from people who have thrown off as much as 6 pounds of fat and fluid in the very first weekend ..."

The way you use diet bullets is simple. All you do is mix it with a glass of your favorite beverage and drink it every day the first thing in the morning.

Then, during the rest of the day, you eat a wide selection of tasty foods which are scientifically programmed to maintain a high level of fat burn-off.

That's all there is to it. This may be the most effective fat-burning method ever developed. It is not a drug. It is not a gimmick. It is a formula and a system that, when used together, make up the program that I was only able to develop after years of research and, as I said before, I use it myself.

It works. And now I want to spread the word to other doctors so they can use my diet system to help all of their overweight patients. To make a long story short, what I want to do is write an article and have it published in the various medical journals as I sincerely feel this is the best way to convince other doctors of the value of my system.

But I need a lot of proof in order to get my article published and this is where you can help me. And, as I said before, I will be more than happy to repay you for your help.

So, therefore, here is what I would like you to do! If you or any member of your family is overweight I would like you to go ahead and order my program and test it yourself. It is sold by Millburn Products, Inc. As soon as you receive this fantastic diet system — start the program and see if it works for you. Frankly, this or any other diet program will not work for everybody if only because a very small percentage of people have unusual problems. (By the way, naturally, you should check with your doctor before you use this or any other diet plan.) However, Millburn Products is so positive about this diet program that they are making the following guarantee!

IF YOU HAVE NOT LOST UP TO 6 POUNDS IN THE FIRST 48 HOURS AND UP TO 12 POUNDS IN THE FIRST WEEK, IF YOU ARE NOT 100% SATISFIED — THEN SEND BACK THE EMPTY PRODUCT CONTAINER AND THE COMPANY WILL RETURN YOUR ENTIRE PAYMENT TO YOU QUIETLY AND WITHOUT QUESTION.

The price is just $16.95 for a full 20-day supply with complete instructions. A 30-day supply is $18.95 which is a 25% discount, a 60-day supply is $35.61 which is a 30% discount. Whatever quantity you order you will of course receive my entire program.

It is easy to order. Simply write your name and address and the words "Doctors program" on a piece of paper and send it with your payment to:

Millburn Products, Dept. 2540
Box 219
St. Davids, PA 19087

Checks and money orders should be made payable to Millburn Products. (By the way, if you wish, the company will even allow you to post-date your check by 30 days.)

Or if you prefer, you can order without sending any money. All you have to do is pick up your phone and dial 1-800-523-7635. If you live in Pennsylvania, please call 1-800-662-5180. (These are toll free numbers and won't cost you a penny.) When the girl answers tell her you want to order from Dept. 2540. Then give her your name and address and tell her how much you want to order. Then give her the number of either your Mastercharge or Visa credit card and expiration date.

VITAL NOTE!

PLEASE FOLLOW THE INSTRUCTIONS BELOW TO RECEIVE YOUR FREE SUPPLY OF THIS AMAZING DIET SYSTEM.

That's all there is to it. Your order will be sent out to you quite promptly. After that you are the judge. If you are not 100% satisfied (for any reason at all) simply send back the empty product container to Millburn Products and they will send you a complete refund with no questions asked.

However, I am pretty sure you are going to be more than satisfied. Actually, I think you're going to be amazed. In fact, I think you are going to lose your excess weight faster and easier than you ever thought possible.

Anyway, if I am right, I want you to write me a letter. Don't send the letter to Millburn Products. Send it to me at the address on my business card. In the letter tell me how much weight you have lost and how you feel about my program.

In return for this favor (as soon as I get your letter) I will immediately send you another supply of my diet bullets and I will send it to you absolutely free.

The amount that I will send you will be the same amount that you order now from Millburn Products. In your letter to me just tell me how much you originally ordered. This will be my way of thanking you for helping me with my program. Also, in the long run, I honestly feel that with your help, and the help of other nice people like yourself that I can do a lot to help people who have been struggling for years with a weight problem.

Sincerely,

Don Schwerdtfeger, M.D.

Apparently the Post Office has certain rules that anyone advertising a diet program cannot represent that it "does not require the obese subject to endure fasting or the symptoms of hunger", or "does not require the obese subject to experience any discomfort or the unpleasant sensation normally associated with dieting." So, for the sake of legality, please don't get the impression that we are.

Special: TV shows are satirized by host Bob Hope and a comedy company: Willie Aames, Claude Akins, Loni Anderson, Cathy Lee Crosby, Howard Duff, Barbara Eden, Erik Estrada, Gil Gerard, Charlotte Rae, Barbara Rush, Brooke Shields, Stella Stevens, Danny Thomas, Larry Wilcox and Boomer the dog. They take part in sketches and blackouts spoofing "That's Incredible!" "Speak Up America," "Real People," "Charlie's Angels," nightly news shows and "Dallas"—a takeoff that casts Hope as B.H. Stewing, a malicious, lecherous Texas oil magnate who, people say, "makes Idi Amin look like Walter Cronkite." (60 min.)

Mandated by Congress to Honor a Great American!
Now wear it with pride

THE OFFICIAL U.S. MINT
JOHN WAYNE
COMMEMORATIVE MEDAL

ON A MATCHING

BELT BUCKLE

ONLY

$9.98

This U.S. Mint die-struck medal is the official bronze version of the solid gold medal presented to the Wayne family at The White House! Both the gold and bronze versions were authorized by Congress in a historic special law—the first time an American film star has been honored by an official congressional medal.

Order quickly—availability limited

The official bronze medal is now available handsomely mounted on a bronze-tone belt buckle. The medal makes a striking conversation piece, being 1 5/16" in diameter, almost as large as a silver dollar. It's a unique tribute to "The Duke" from the entire nation he loved! By wearing this official medal, you can show your commitment to those qualities which make America great, the integrity and strength of the American spirit exemplified by John Wayne in public and private. But hurry, the number of buckles is limited by the availability of the medal.

Available in bronze or genuine silver plate

John Wayne official bronze medal buckles are $9.98 each. For only $3.00 more you may order the medal plated with genuine silver — on a silvertone buckle. . .a gleaming momento of the Old Western Mining Days, when a man wore his wealth on his saddle, bridle and person! But hurry, mail your order today.

DOLLY & CAROL IN NASHVILLE
8 PM 4

Special: Dolly Parton and Carol Burnett in concert at the Grand Ole Opry.

The hour opens with an original song that introduces the duo as a mutual admiration society, then goes country with "No One Picks Like a Nashville Picker Picks," a Parton-Burnett duet that is backed by some fancy pickin' on guitars, banjos and fiddles. A variation on this song crops up later in a stylishly choreographed production number that subs "kicks" for "picks."

The headliners also team for a gospel medley that includes "Amazing Grace," "Sweet By and By" and "Let It Shine"; and harmonize on selections from "heart" songs, such as "Dear Hearts and Gentle People," "Heartbreak Hotel," "It's a Heartache" and "Heartaches by the Number."

And there's comedy: a sketch that casts Burnett as a tomboy and Parton as a homebody—who grows up to steal the neighborhood guys from Carol. (Repeat; 60 min.)

THE TEMPEST

"We are such stuff as dreams are made on, and our little life is rounded with a sleep."

This extract from one of Shakespeare's most famous speeches comes from—and sublimely characterizes—"The Tempest," one of the Bard's final works.

The tempest that left a number of shipwreck survivors stranded on a Mediterranean island was no outburst of nature. The storm was magically orchestrated by the island's ruler Prospero (Michael Hordern), who was usurped of his dukedom many years earlier by his brother Antonio (Derek Godfrey). Now, it is in Prospero's realm—an enchanted land inhabited also by his daughter Miranda (Pippa Guard), the sprite Ariel (David Dixon) and the half-human "thing of darkness" Caliban (Warren Clarke)—that Antonio and some treacherous companions are cast adrift, separated and controlled.

Directed by John Gorrie. Alonso: David Waller. Sebastian: Alan Rowe. Ferdinand: Christopher Guard. Gonzalo: John Nettleton. Trinculo: Andrew Sachs. Stephano: Nigel Hawthorne. Shipmaster: Edwin Brown. (Repeat; 2 hrs., 30 min.)

Harper Valley PTA

When something is nifty in Harper Valley, the kids call it "totally max." Alas, things more often tend to be min for newcomers Stella Johnson (Barbara Eden) and her 13-year-old daughter, Dee, who seem to have been overlooked by Welcome Wagon. Maybe that's because the Harper Valley wives have noticed that their husbands now leave for work at the same time voluptuous Stella, a widow, goes jogging. Stella is not above using her charms—and her perverse genius for pranks—to turn the tables on the Harper Valley hypocrites who would like her to go back where she came from. This makes life difficult for Dee, who wishes her mom would settle down and act normal like the other folks in town, who include such paragons of civic virtue as the wealthy and imperious Flora Simpson Reilly, who has a little gambling problem; her wimpy husband Norman, who has a lingerie fetish; Bobby Taylor, a real-estate dealer who considers himself a bedroom specialist; and Otis Harper Jr., mayor and town drunk. NBC. Pictured: Barbara Eden.

Too Close for Comfort

"I can't help it if your boy friends are attracted to me," says blonde Sara Rush (Lydia Cornell) to her brunette sister Jackie (Deborah Van Valkenburgh). "When it comes to personality, I just happen to be a 10." "When it comes to personality," Jackie shoots back, "you happen to be a 36C." In truth, both of these foxy siblings are perilously personable—a fact not lost on their worrywart father, Henry Rush, played by Ted Knight. To get out from under his overprotective eye, the girls move into the funky apartment below—not quite far enough to keep Henry from hovering, hemming and hawing. His wife Muriel (Nancy Dussault) tries to keep him from butting in, but you can be sure the girls will keep fighting, Henry will keep meddling and Sara will pointedly continue to display her personality. ABC. Pictured (l.-r.): Lydia Cornell, Ted Knight, Deborah Van Valkenburgh.

Flamingo Road

"Right through here, folks," shouts the carny barker in one episode of this series. "Seamy, steamy, sexy!" He's talking about the disco girls inside the tent, but the come-on also applies to this prime-time soap opera about scandal and intrigue in a small Southern town. The key players are Titus Semple (Howard Duff), the scheming sheriff who controls the town; his politically ambitious deputy, Fielding Carlyle (Mark Harmon); Constance Weldon (Morgan Fairchild), Fielding's aristocratic fiancée; and Lane Ballou (Cristina Raines), the sultry drifter who falls in love with Fielding. Other regulars are Stella Stevens as Lute-Mae, the shady lady of River Street; John Beck, Woody Brown, Kevin McCarthy and Barbara Rush. The producer, Lorimar, has sold this show to NBC, even though it has three other serials on CBS—Dallas, Knots Landing and Secrets of Midland Heights. But then—what fun's a soap opera without a little hanky-panky? NBC. Pictured: (clockwise from top) Howard Duff, Morgan Fairchild, Mark Harmon, Cristina Raines.

Enos

Durned if them Dukes of Hazzard don't keep spinnin' their wheels practically to the top of the dang Nielsens! So it's only natchul that CBS should do some spinnin' of its own. They've gone and spun off Enos Strate (Sonny Shroyer) all the way to a special metro squad of the Los Angeles Police Department. The wide-eyed country boy gets teamed up with a street-smart black cop named Turk (Samuel E. Wright), and before you can say pig farm, them two fellas are hittin' it off like grits 'n' greens. In his first three days, ol' Enos manages to demolish a police car, arrest an undercover officer and ruin a vice raid ("Dad-burn it!"). But he also manages to meet lots of purty li'l thangs. Best of all, Los Angeles has a darned sight more cars to chase than Hazzard County ever did. Hoo boy! Buckle up, naow. CBS. Pictured (l. to r.): Samuel E. Wright, Sonny Shroyer.

Magnum, P.I.

You might think it's easy being T.S. Magnum (Tom Selleck), Private Investigator. Well, it isn't. Oh sure, he gets free lodging on a fabulous Hawaiian estate owned by a best-selling writer who's almost never there. Sure, Magnum has that solid-gold signet ring with that striking French croix set on that gleaming black onyx. Granted, he leads an exciting life chasing various nefarious types. True, he's a splendid hunk who's usually surrounded by gorgeous, bikini-clad hunkettes. OK, so he has good buddies like TC (Roger E. Mosley) and Rick (Larry Manetti). All right, he gets to drive fast in his host's $60,000 red Ferrari. Agreed, he has fun baiting Higgins (John Hillerman), the starchy majordomo. Well, what's the catch? The catch is that old debbil, pressure: Magnum had better make good. ABC's Barney Miller and NBC's Thursday-night movie are waiting for him—and not with leis and warm alohas. CBS. Pictured: Tom Selleck.

It's a Living

Brassy Cassie (Ann Jillian) has been around, while virtuous Vicki (Wendy Schaal) has hardly been anywhere. Enterprising Jan (Barrie Youngfellow) is studying for a college degree. Star-struck Dot (Gail Edwards) wants to be an actress. And levelheaded Lois (Susan Sullivan) wants to keep these curvy colleagues out of trouble with Nancy, the no-nonsense maitre d' (Marian Mercer). All five are waitresses with a penchant for comic predicaments. Innocent Vicki has been invited for a weekend in Palm Springs with a dashing pilot; should she or shouldn't she? Dot hopes she'll get the TV commercial she just auditioned for; will she or won't she? Jan's job is on the line if she doesn't apologize for her treatment of two pinch-happy patrons; can she or can't she? The girls wrestle with these dilemmas in the kitchen while the customers stew, Nancy nags and the producers pray it's a living. ABC. Pictured (center): Marian Mercer; (clockwise from top left): Ann Jillian, Wendy Schaal, Susan Sullivan, Gail Edwards, Barrie Youngfellow.

Bosom Buddies

You think you've got problems? Consider the plight of Henry Desmond (Peter Scolari) and Kip Wilson (Tom Hanks), two struggling young admen. Their campaign for Blouse City has just been ripped into tiny shreds, and Henry has lost a parakeet named Modigliani. Worse, they've just been evicted from their apartment. With some help from Amy (Wendie Jo Sperber), who's bananas over Henry, they move into the Susan B. Anthony Hotel, an all-women's residence. Henry and Kip accomplish that feat by posing—and dressing—as "Hildegarde" and "Buffy." This is not all bad. Unlike, say, your neighborhood YWCA, the Susan B. Anthony Hotel is populated almost entirely by eye-popping beauties, including Sonny (Donna Dixon), who gives Kip goose bumps. To keep the series going, however, our reluctant transvestites will have to spend some of their time in women's apparel, and that could get to be a drag. ABC. Pictured: Peter Scolari, Tom Hanks.

THE FIRST HIGH GRADE VIDEOTAPE.

Video cassette recorders have improved a lot in the last few years, with new features like six-hour recording, slow motion and freeze frame.

But there's one drawback. To utilize these features, you must operate your cassette recorder at a slower speed. This places more pressure on the videotape, which can cause a loss of picture quality.

So while video cassette recorder manufacturers were busy improving recorders, Maxell was busy improving videotape.

The result is Maxell Epitaxial HG, the first high grade VHS videocassette tape.

Unlike ordinary videotape, Maxell HG contains smaller oxide particles that are more densely packed on the tape surface. Which is why we have better color and sharper images, especially at the slower recording speeds.

So if you own a VHS recorder, please remember one thing. If you want high grade picture quality, you need a high grade tape.

maxell IT'S WORTH IT.

I'm a Big Girl Now

The big girl is Diana Cassidy (Diana Canova), who was married at 19. Now she's not married. Let her father, Ben (Danny Thomas), tell why: "Thousands of guys in the world and you pick one with pierced ears." But then, Ben isn't doing too well himself: his wife of 34 years has just run off to Barcelona with his best friend, Ira. So Ben has moved in with Diana and her 7-year-old daughter, Rebecca (Rori King). Diana wants to live her own life—and that's not easy when you have a buttinsky father who still thinks you're his little girl. When the three-way generation gap gets to be too much, Diana turns to her confidante, Edie (Sheree North), who is also her boss at a Washington think tank. But Edie's responses tend to be more helpful to the laugh track than they are to Diana, as in this exchange. Diana: "I have a problem at home." Edie: "That's a good place for it." ABC. Pictured: Diana Canova, Danny Thomas.

Now you know what the networks have in store for you this fall. And those brave new series described on the preceding pages know what may be in store for them: most—about 80 per cent—are likely to find themselves in Cancellation Canyon within the next few months. Meanwhile, waiting anxiously off stage are a band of contenders eager to take their places: the networks' backup series. Of the dozens of such series in development, network sources say these are the most likely candidates to make it this fall or winter. (In some cases, details—casting and character names, for instance—may change before the programs are scheduled.)

The American Dream. It's a case of culture shock when the Novaks leave their home in the suburbs and move to an inner-city Chicago neighborhood. The contemporary one-hour drama stars Stephen Macht, Karen Carlson, Michael Hershewe, Andrea Smith, Tim Waldrip, Hans Conried and John McIntire.

Dynasty. Denver, not Dallas, is the setting for this large-cast, serial saga of power and passion in the oil business. Two men dominate the story—a ruthless tycoon and an independent operator with a more modest company and idealistic goals. The cast includes Linda Evans, Pamela Sue Martin, Bo Hopkins and Dale Robertson.

Foul Play. Barry Bostwick and Deborah Raffin star in this TV adaptation of the motion picture about an inept, violin-playing San Francisco police lieutenant and his show-biz friend who team up to stamp out crime in the city. The hour-long episodes blend mystery, adventure and comedy.

Mr. and Mrs. Dracula move to the Bronx because "Transylvania is no longer a decent place for a vampire to raise a family." Like all immigrants, however, they're reluctant to give up certain old-country customs. Dick Shawn grows long in the tooth to star in this half-hour comedy.

The Phoenix, a handsome chap discovered lying in a tomb in an ancient Incan ruin, is revived by a scientist and found to possess amazing telepathic powers. He can read minds, for instance, and even make others change their decisions. Fortunately, he uses these extraordinary abilities to help mankind. Judson Scott stars in the one-hour fantasy drama.

CBS

And Baby Makes Six. Colleen Dewhurst and Warren Oates play a middle-aged couple who suddenly discover they are going to have a new baby in the family, which includes three grown children. The series is based on last year's NBC movie.

Concrete Cowboys. Jerry Reed and Geoffrey Scott play a couple of modern-day cowboys who, in the tradition of Route 66, ride into different towns to help the local citizens overcome their problem-of-the-week.

and Susan Bigelow star in a comedy about the problems of two newlyweds. The husband, a musical arranger at an ad agency, happens to be blind.

The Marla Gibbs Show. Florence (Marla Gibbs), the Jeffersons' maid, get her own show in what CBS describes as "a definite replacement" series.

Nurse, based on the best-selling book and subsequent TV-movie, brings back Michael Learned in a drama about a woman who returns to nursing after her husband dies.

Ryker is an action drama about a tough police detective who is thrown off the force after getting too rough with some criminals. The firing is a smoke screen, however; Ryker is actually going undercover for the district attorney's office. Josh Taylor stars.

NBC

The Gangster Chronicles is a fact-based drama of the personal lives of three chieftains of organized crime in America. Though now scheduled as a limited-run miniseries, The Gangster Chronicles is regarded as a strong contender for a regular-series slot in NBC's prime-time lineup.

Nero Wolfe is an eccentric, 285-pound genius who raises orchids, loves gourmet meals and solves crimes without leaving his house. His chronicler and legman is the able, wisecracking Archie Goodwin. William Conrad stars as the fat detective.

Number 96, described as "an adult comedy-drama serial," is set in an adults-only apartment complex (Number 96 Brooke Way) in Southern California. The show looks at the escapades of 16 married and single residents whose lives intertwine.

A Rock and a Hard Place is a half-hour comedy about a roguish good ol' boy, Hunter Crockett, who has a knack for trouble. He quits his job on an assembly line and seeks to have fun while beating the system. Jay Kerr is Crockett. END

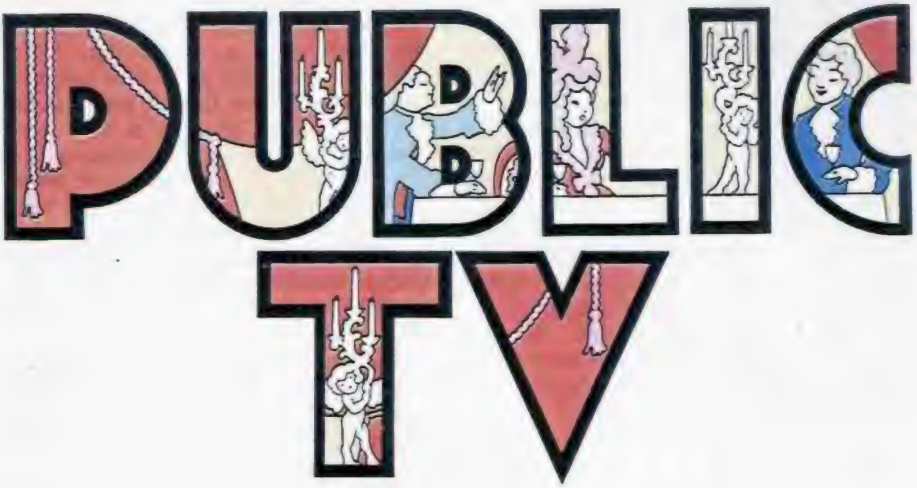
Reach out and touch someone.



Public television stations have finally learned a lesson that most of their commercial cousins knew all along: by agreeing to show programs at the same times on the same nights, they could promote themselves in a big way and attract more viewers. Since its premiere last year, PBS's "core schedule" of programming—from 8 to 10 P.M. (ET) Sunday through Wednesday—has helped enlarge the public-TV audience by 22 per cent.

This season the core will continue on most public stations. Its new cycle of programs will begin Sept. 28, with some series running all season long, but with others being limited to a few weeks' duration and then supplanted by other limited series. The schedule:

SUNDAY

Cosmos (8 P.M.) is arguably the most ambitious miniseries PBS has ever attempted. In 13 installments, astronomer-author Carl Sagan leads an exploration of the mysteries of Earth and space. Dr. Sagan uses film footage and elaborate special effects to investigate such extraterrestrial phenomena as black holes, Martian "canals" and alternate universes, as well as such Earthbound matters as Egyptian hieroglyphics and communication among whales.

Shock of the New (8 P.M.) will begin in January, after the conclusion of Cosmos. With Robert Hughes, Time magazine art critic, as host, the series will examine the social history of the 20th century through the sweep of modern art.

Masterpiece Theatre (9 P.M.) begins its 10th-anniversary season Sept. 28 with Dostoevsky's Crime and Punishment, in four parts. John Hurt (who was Caligula in I, Claudius) plays Raskolnikov. The second novel will be Jane Austen's Pride and Prejudice, in five episodes. The winter and spring months will bring Testament of Youth, the story of a front-line nurse in World War I; and Emile Zola's Thérèse Raquin.

MONDAY

Great Performances (8 P.M.) fills the core on Monday nights with a mixture of drama, music and dance. It opens Sept. 29 with a six-part adaptation of John Le Carré's espionage thriller Tinker, Tailor, Soldier, Spy, with Sir Alec Guinness as the contemplative British agent George Smiley.

After that will come such miscellany as Mark Twain's "Life on the Mississippi" (Nov. 24), a $1.7-million pro- → duction filmed along the banks of the Illinois River and with writer Kurt Vonnegut as host; Richard Strauss's opera "Der Rosenkavalier," filmed in Munich; Sir Georg Solti conducting the Chicago Symphony Orchestra (Dec. 29); an adaptation of Dorothy Parker's short story "Big Blonde," starring Sally Kellerman; a dramatization of Edith Wharton's "House of Mirth," with Geraldine Chaplin; and new performances in the Dance in America series.

The Shakespeare Plays, entering their third season, will pre-empt Great Performances on seven nights. The first of them will be "Hamlet," on Nov. 10, starring Derek Jacobi (formerly the stammering hero of I, Claudius). Later in the season, viewers will be able to see "Antony and Cleopatra," "The Winter's Tale," "The Merchant of Venice" (with Gemma Duchess of Duke Street Jones as Portia), "The Taming of the Shrew" (with John Monty Python Cleese as Petruchio), "Timon of Athens" and "All's Well That Ends Well."

TUESDAY

Nova (8 P.M.) resumes Sept. 30 with "The Pinks and the Blues," a look at the differences between boys and girls at a time when sex roles are being redefined. Subsequent Nova telecasts will include "The Cancer Detectives of Lin Xian," about medical research in China; "The Sea Behind the Dunes," scrutinizing the ecology of a coastal lagoon; and "Do We Really Need the Rockies?," a look at the promise and problems of shale oil.

The Body in Question (9 P.M.) takes a 13-week tour through the human body and the evolution of medical science with Jonathan Miller, physician, humorist and theatrical director.

Mystery! (9 P.M.) returns after The Body in Question finishes its run. It will have new episodes of Rumpole of the Bailey and Sergeant Cribb, plus a new two-part version of "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde."

WEDNESDAY

This is a night reserved for specials, ranging from filmed documentaries to live performances, beginning at 8 o'clock. These include a new batch of Live from Lincoln Center productions, beginning Sept. 24 with a New York Philharmonic concert celebrating the 60th birthday of violinist Isaac Stern. He will perform for the first time publicly with his protégés Itzhak Perlman and Pinchas Zukerman. The second Lincoln Center telecast will be a performance of Verdi's "Requiem" (Oct. 22).

Two Metropolitan Opera telecasts will be among the Wednesday specials —Verdi's "La Traviata" (Nov. 5) and Richard Strauss's "Elektra," starring Birgit Nilsson (Jan. 28).

(Other) Live from the Met broadcasts will be seen other nights of the week: Puccini's "Manon Lescaut," with Renata Scotto and Placido Domingo (Sept. 27); Berg's "Lulu," with Teresa Stratas (Dec. 20); and Donizetti's "L'Elisir d'Amore," with Luciano Pavarotti and Judith Blegen (March 2).

There will be pop music on Wednesdays too, such as Dionne Warwick in concert on Oct. 15. And a suspense movie about urban terror, "The Plumber," is scheduled for Oct. 29.

Among the documentaries are: "Nuclear Nightmares" (Oct. 1), a 90-minute telecast focusing on the nuclear capabilities of the U.S. and USSR, narrated by Peter Ustinov; "Adoption" (Nov. 26), a Newsweek Cover Story dealing with such matters as the placement of handicapped children, Vietnam babies and an adoptive daughter in search of her natural mother; and a series of four science specials called Survival, which has its debut Nov. 12 and plans episodes about caribou, African termites, leopards and humpback whales.

Additional nonfiction programs will be profiles of playwright Arthur Miller and Charles Schulz, creator of the "Peanuts" comic strip.

Outside the core schedule, local stations will continue to set their own →

Q. Cathy, I worry about absorbency. Is there anything I can do?

A. Sure. Use Stayfree® Maxi-Pads and you get the confidence of full-size protection. They even have a moisture-proof shield to protect clothing. In seven years, they've never let me down. I'm sure you'll love them.

"Stayfree® Maxi-Pads give me the protection I can trust, and comfort too!"

Cathy Rigby

Q. I find belted pads uncomfortable and restraining. How can I get positive protection without all the inconvenience?

A. You obviously haven't tried beltless Stayfree Maxi-Pads. They're much more comfortable and they're made to be more absorbent than any belted pad. And without all the hassles. With Stayfree Maxi-Pads you'll get the best of both comfort and protection.

Q. I love wearing clingy clothes, but I'm afraid my belt will show through. What should I use?

A. Use what I use, Stayfree Maxi-Pads. Lots of my time is spent in a leotard. So naturally, I too need inconspicuous protection. Stayfree Maxi-Pads have a wide adhesive strip that keeps them in place without belts, pins or telltale bulges. So go ahead and wear your clingy clothes!

crafts; "National Parks: Playground or Paradise," an appraisal of the effects of tourist hordes on the ecology of our national parks; and "Gorilla," studying the behavior of the largest apes.

Once upon a Classic has a whole shelf of new video volumes, including Charles Dickens' A Tale of Two Cities in eight installments, Sir Walter Scott's The Talisman, George Eliot's The Mill on the Floss, and The Swish of the Curtain, a story about children trying to start a theater group.

Bill Moyers' Journal presents nine special editions highlighting aspects of the political campaign. After the election, Moyers will resume his mixture of documentaries and conversations on various subjects.

Other perennial series offering fresh programs are Washington Week in Review, Wall Street Week, The MacNeil/Lehrer Report, Sneak Previews, Over Easy, The Advocates, Soundstage, The Dick Cavett Show and Here's to Your Health. Evening at Symphony, as well as last season's Connections and Odyssey series, will be repeated during the season. World will return as five specials, one of which will investigate the Soviet Union's Red Army.

For the children, Sesame Street, Villa Alegre and Mister Rogers' Neighborhood will intermingle old and new shows. 3-2-1 Contact, The Electric Company, Footsteps and Freestyle will run through another repeat cycle.

In addition to picking up scheduling and promotion tips from the commercial networks, public television stations have appropriated one of their shows—The Paper Chase, the series about law students first shown on CBS. Amid loud viewer protests, the series collapsed during the ratings marathon of the 1978-79 season. It is being resuscitated in the form of reruns and will be ready sometime in 1981 for a jog in the less competitive arena of public television. (END)

As NBC's slow burn over the 1980 Moscow Olympics fades into ABC's slow buildup toward the 1984 Los Angeles Olympics, you can sit back, relax—and anticipate an uninterrupted schedule of TV sports. Chances are, the only invasions that will affect telecasts of games this season will be spearheaded by fast breaks or forward passes. The bloodless blitzkrieg starts with:

Pro Football: CBS and NBC, which launched their 1980 regular-season NFL coverage Sept. 7, continue this week with Sept. 14 games between Oakland and San Diego (NBC), and Dallas and Denver (CBS). On Thanksgiving Day (Nov. 27), CBS serves up Chicago vs. Detroit and NBC offers Seattle vs. Dallas. Then, after 104 NFC and 100 AFC regular-season games, CBS and NBC each broadcast a wild-card play-off Dec. 28. Divisional play-offs follow on Jan. 3 and Jan. 4, and then the NFC and AFC championships Jan. 11. On Jan. 25, NBC trumpets Super Bowl XV from the New Orleans Superdome, with a two-hour warmup at 4 P.M. (ET) and, at 6 P.M.—total war.

ABC has 16 Monday Night Football games, plus four prime-timers other nights of the week. Upcoming Monday games include: Houston at Cleveland (Sept. 15); Oakland at Pittsburgh (Oct. 20); Dallas at Los Angeles (Dec. 15). Prime-time "specials" started Thursday, Sept. 11, with Los Angeles vs. Tampa Bay. Then: San Diego vs. Dallas (Sunday, Oct. 26); San Diego vs. Miami (Thursday, Nov. 20); and Pittsburgh vs. Houston (Thursday, Dec. 4). ABC closes out the season Feb. 1 with the Pro Bowl game, from Hawaii.

College Football: ABC began its NCAA football cheerleading Sept. 1 with Arkansas vs. Texas. Overall, the network has 13 national and 45 regional Division IA games in 1980, including Pitt-Penn State (Friday, Nov. 28) and Southern California-Notre Dame (Saturday, Dec. 6). ABC also broadcasts NCAA Division III, Division II and Division IAA championship contests on Dec. 6, 13 and 20, respectively.

Premiere Division IA has no championship game—if it did, the people who run the following bowl games might be out of business: Dec. 25, Blue-Gray Game (CBS); Dec. 26, Fiesta Bowl (NBC); Dec. 27, Liberty Bowl (ABC) and Sun Bowl (CBS); Dec. 29, a prime-time Gator Bowl (ABC); Jan. 1, Rose and prime-time Orange Bowls (NBC), Sugar Bowl (ABC) and Cotton Bowl (CBS); Jan. 2, Peach Bowl (CBS); Jan. 10, East-West Shrine Game (CBS). Also in January, ABC covers the Hula Bowl on Wide World of Sports.

Baseball: ABC's Sunday major-league schedule continues through →

continued

Oct. 5. From Oct. 7 through Oct. 12, ABC broadcasts both the National and American League championship series. Then NBC presents the World Series: Oct. 14 and 15 from the National League city; Oct. 17, 18 and, if needed, 19 from the American League city; and, if necessary, Oct. 21 and 22 from the National League city.

NBC's Saturday Game-of-the-Week telecasts resume April 11, with a time-out July 14 for the 1981 All-Star Game from Cleveland.

Pro Basketball: You can see The Doctor, Magic, The Bird—and opponents getting Kareemed—all on the NBA on CBS, which launches its 40-game TV season Friday, Oct. 10. There's a Christmas Day game, then regular Sunday broadcasts start Jan. 18. CBS covers the NBA All-Star Game on Sunday, Feb. 1, then televises every game in the best-of-seven NBA World Championship series, beginning Tuesday, May 5.

College Basketball: NCAA basketball returns to NBC in December with a trio of blockbusters: Dec. 13, defending NCAA champ Louisville faces Maryland; Dec. 20, defending Big Ten champ Indiana meets North Carolina; Dec. 27, UCLA takes on DePaul. And NBC will have NCAA tournament doubleheaders March 14, 15, 21 and 22. Then showdown matches start among the final four, with semifinals Saturday, March 28, followed on Monday, March 30, by the NCAA championship contest.

Boxing: Beginning this fall, ABC offers ABC's International Boxing, pitting America's amateurs against the rest of the world. But when it comes to premier pro bouts, the three networks so far have announced none. The top pros can extort more money from pay-TV ticket sales—in arenas and theaters—than from free TV.

Horse Racing: CBS gets off first with the Woodward (Sept. 20) and the Jockey Club Gold Cup (Oct. 4). Next spring, ABC will bring us the 1981 Kentucky Derby (May 2) and the → Tennis: The battle for the "upscale" audience resumes, with ABC and NBC touting "quality" tournaments and CBS countering with quantity. In 1981, CBS presents: the Grand Prix Masters, Jan. 17-18; the Pepsi Grand Slam, Feb. 14-15; the French Open, June 6-7; the U.S. Clay Court Championships, Aug. 8-9; the ATP Championship, Aug. 30; and the climactic event, the 1981 U.S. Open, starting Sept. 1.

ABC offers the Tournament of Champions, May 9-10, and the Robert F. Kennedy Pro-Celebrity Tennis Tournament in August. NBC has the women's Family Circle Cup tournament, April 11-12, and is praying for a Borg-McEnroe rematch at Wimbledon, June 27-July 4.

Golf: There'll be at least 30 different tournaments broadcast this season. ABC blankets the U.S. Open, June 18-21, with 18-hole, four-hour coverage of the third and fourth rounds; then telecasts the U.S. Women's Open, July 25-26; the British Open, July 18-19; the PGA Championship, Aug. 7-9; and the U.S. Amateur Championship, Sept. 6. CBS presents the Phoenix Open, Jan. 24-25; the Bing Crosby National Pro-Am, Jan. 31-Feb. 1; the 45th Masters Tournament, April 10-12; the Memorial Tournament, May 23-24; and the World Series of Golf, Aug. 29-30. NBC offers the Bob Hope Desert Classic, Jan. 17-18; the Hawaiian Open, Feb. 14-15; the Women's Kemper Open, March 28-29; the Colgate-Dinah Shore, April 4-5; the Houston Open, May 2-3; and the LPGA, June 13-14.

Auto Racing: ABC covers the first and last days (May 9 and May 17) of the Indy Time Trials, then the Indianapolis 500 itself, Sunday, May 24. Also in May: The Grand Prix of Monaco.

CBS has The Los Angeles Times 500 (Nov. 15), the 24-Hours-of-Daytona (Jan. 31-Feb. 1), The Busch Clash (Feb. 8), the Daytona 500 (Feb. 15), Grand Prix West (March 15) and →

SYNDICATED

The people who dream up, produce and sell programs to local stations on a syndicated basis must believe that viewers' appetite for talk is insatiable. This, at least, is one conclusion to be drawn from the collection of syndicated series planned for the new season. Like the network schedules, the syndicators' wares reflect an infatuation with "reality" programming.

The Don Lane Show is Australia's most successful talk/variety hour. Lane, who hails from the Bronx, mixes celebrity interviews with songs and comedy.

Hour Magazine is a weekday series aimed at daytime viewers. Hosts Gary Collins and Pat Mitchell will conduct interviews in the studio and on location, and present experts who talk about medicine, psychology, cooking, exercise and travel.

The Monte Carlo Show bills itself as a series of "variety spectaculars." Taped before live audiences in Monte Carlo's Sporting Club, the shows will feature American and European musical performers, acrobats, dancers and showgirls. The host is Patrick Wayne (son of John).

Morecambe and Wise stars a zany pair of British comedians in a BBC variety program. The burlesque style of Eric Morecambe and Ernie Wise has made them Britain's most popular TV comedy act.

Solid Gold, starring singer Dionne Warwick, will have recording artists performing their hit records. This is the first weekly series produced under the aegis of Operation Prime Time, a four-year-old consortium of stations that has made its mark by telecasting TV-movies and miniseries based on best sellers.

The Toni Tennille Show brings the singer back to TV in a daily series that mingles music and comedy with conversation.

You Bet Your Life is a revival of the old comedy-quiz show, with Buddy Hackett attempting to fill Groucho Marx's shoes.

The World of People goes on location all over the U.S. to cover such "people events" as an ugly-dog contest, a séance, a garlic festival, a cowboy bar and a Bette Midler autograph party.

Your New Day has beauty expert Vidal Sassoon as its host, and so the talk here will stress self-improvement and consumer tips, with celebrities joining Sassoon in the daily chitchat.

In addition to its Solid Gold series, Operation Prime Time is planning to offer adaptations of "Condominium," John D. MacDonald's novel about a Florida apartment complex lashed by a hurricane; and "Mom, The Wolfman and Me," Norma Klein's book depicting the way an 11-year-old girl views her unmarried mother's relationship with a companion she calls "The Wolfman."

Some British made-for-television movies will also be unveiled after the first of the year: Agatha Christie's "Why Didn't They Ask Evans?" starring Sir John Gielgud; and "Churchill and the Generals," a docudrama about the relations during World War II between Sir Winston Churchill and such generals as Britain's Bernard Montgomery and America's Dwight D. Eisenhower.

And network veterans Barney Miller, Barnaby Jones, Wonder Woman and Battlestar Galactica will be recycled through syndication this fall and winter. END
